

No muster into the service either of the State or the United States will be required.

A. G. CURTIN.

An immense town meeting is now being held in the court-house, and the people are enrolling themselves for organization to defend the city.

GOLD.

New York, July 30 — Gold, to-day, 253.

The story telegraphed a day or two ago, that the Federal forces, under Rousseau, had entered Montgomery, Alabama, and cut its railroad communications with Mobile, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger pronounces wholly untrue.

The Washington Star denies the reported naval engagement in the James river between the U. S., and confederate gunboats and rams, and the loss of a U. S. gunboat. The report it says originated from heavy firing on land.

The new U. S. Loan is said to be succeeding in New York and other Northern cities. — On the first day, in New York, the Times reports subscriptions amounted to over two and a half millions of dollars.

The onion crop at the North, this year, is very large; larger than ever before—exceeding in quality and quantity any previous year. — And yet here the price of onions is most exorbitant.

Gen. O. O. Howard, of the Federal army has been appointed to the command of the army and department of Tennessee, in place of McPherson, killed.

Passengers in the steamers between this place and New York, are now required to procure passes, from the military authorities.

DIED.

At Fort Delaware, on the 11th instant, H. COLLINS RIRKBY, aged about 25 years, a citizen of Leesburg, Loudoun County, Va., and a member of White's bat alion, Co. C, Virginia Cavalry. He was brave, upright and intelligent, and beloved by all who knew him.

In Howard County, Maryland, on Wednesday, the 27th instant, Mrs. LEFITIA M., wife of the Rev. Thomas McCormick, formerly of this city.
